Laurey Williams

The heroine of the show, Laurey is a headstrong young farm-owner, Aunt Eller's independent and intelligent niece. Impetuous at times, she is generally sensible and deep thinking. She is likeable, attractive and romantic at heart. Unlike some of her friends, she doesn't feel the need for a man to take care of her. She likes Curly very much, but doesn't want to appear to be a push-over, and is too proud to let on about her feelings for him. When she is threatened by Jud Fry, she turns to Curly for comfort. Laurey is very thoughtful, but also confused, and she has to deal with making some bad decisions. She is also very confident, and ready to put misfortune behind her.

Age:	Young adult
Voice type:	Soprano
Vocal technique:	Lyrical – preferably trained
Vocal range:	C4 – A5
Movement:	Confidant mover

Audition material:

- Many a New Day — Start to halfway down p65
- People will say we're in love (reprise) — pp 177-178 (with Curly)